2024 Night of the Stars sponsored by The Education Foundation

St. Lucie County, FL- The 44st Night of the Stars will be held virtually this year due to the ongoing pandemic. Night of the Stars is the annual ceremony recognizing excellence among the professional staff at St. Lucie Public Schools. During the event, Teacher of the Year, School Related Employee of the Year, Distinguished Minority Educator of the Year, Outstanding First Year Teacher of the Year and Principal & Assistant Principal of the Year will all be announced.

This years' event will be telecast live from WLX TV, the school district channel on Saturday, February 3, starting at 4pm. Everyone is invited to tune in and help us celebrate excellence in St. Lucie County Public Schools.

“Night of the Stars is one of several signature events for the St Lucie County School Board and the Education Foundation,” stated Thom Jones, President of the Education Foundation. “We’re proud of the outstanding teachers and support staff we have in our Public Schools. They are doing an incredible job with our students, particularly over the past year, during some unprecedented times.” Teacher of the Year go on to the State level competition.

The live broadcast will be available on Comcast Cablevision Channel 13 (Ft. Pierce), Comcast Cablevision Channel 19 (Port St. Lucie), Bluestream Cable Channel 19, SLPS Wireless Channel 36 and AT&T TV Channel 99 under St. Lucie County Community Channels.
